

Six South Bay School Districts and Their COVID Journey

Wednesday, April 7, 2021. 7 pm

League of Women Voters of the Beach Cities interviewed South Bay superintendents to learn about the challenges facing their staff, students and families as they moved from in-person instruction to distance learning last year and how their districts are moving forward..

Learn what they had to say about technology, rapidly changing directives from the state and county, enrollment loss, partnerships with social services agencies, and working cooperatively together.
